HEADLINERS

RED STRIPE BAND

The Red Stripe Band regularly plays at the top jazz festivals in the UK and beyond, being asked back year after year to deliver their unique and engaging show.

They have also played at jazz clubs worldwide from New York to Tokyo and Paris to Monte Carlo as well as the famous "Le Scimmie" jazz club in Milan.

They can be seen at private parties, society weddings and corporate events throughout the year including engagements for members of Royal Families in no less than five countries. They have shared stages with Madonna, Sting, Van Morrison, Eddi Reader, John Martyn, Chris Barber to name but a few.

The Red Stripe Band is guaranteed to get everyone onto the dance floor with their big, brassy, boogie-woogie sound. With vocals from Gemma Nelson, Martin Gray on tenor sax, Erica Clarke on baritone sax, Karen Straw on trumpet, Costa on bass and Ed Williams on drums this band really will kick start this year's festival.

"Red Stripe's immediate rapport with the audience and quirky humour makes this show unmissable" - Stephen Fry

ABRAM WILSON QUARTET PRESENTS TRUMPET KINGS

Celebrating 10 years in the UK, Abram Wilson is back on the road with a new band of stellar musicians and a set of well known standards from the jazz repertoire by revered trumpet players Clifford Brown, Freddie Hubbard, Lee Morgan and Woody Shaw. Expect to see Wilson along with his sensational rhythm section swing just like the original kings before them.

Multi-award winning New Orleans trumpeter and vocalist, Abram Wilson, is one of the leading jazz trumpeters in the UK today. With trumpet playing reminiscent of Freddie Hubbard, Miles Davis, and Wynton Marsalis and the vocals of Sammy Davis Jr. and Chet Baker, Wilson has created a unique and captivating style of melodic compositions that swing and groove. Charismatic on stage and off, Wilson's musicality exudes warmth, passion, virtuosity and soul.

With support from Jazz Services Ltd and Arts Council England.

THE LIANE CARROLL TRIO

Featuring Liane Carroll (voice and piano) Roger Carey (bass guitar) Mark Fletcher (drums).

It's been 8 years since we were first introduced to and were captivated by Liane at Southport Arts Centre. Since then she has played at Southport Melodic Jazz Club several times with one occasion resulting in their biggest ever club audience. This is hardly surprising for a song writing, vocal and pianistic talent that has seen Liane move from early tours in the '90's with Gerry Rafferty, Jerry Donahue and Long John Baldry to regular headline gigs at Ronnie Scott's, a tour of Brazil where she played to 50,000 audience and an appearance at Glastonbury Festival in 2007. After picking up 'Musician of the Year' award from the Parliamentary Jazz Awards in 2008, she has enjoyed great acclaim for her collaborations with pianist Brian Kellock and vocalist Ian Shaw. In 2011 her trio went to the USA and played at iconic jazz venues Dizzy's and The Lincoln Centre in New York and also at the world famous Rochester Jazz Festival. We heard her last at a knock-out gig at the Tingley Jazz Festival last July with the trio including tonight's drummer Mark Fletcher and that clinched it. You must not miss this one.

We're working in harmony too.

By developing a collaborative partnership of equals that works in the best interests of us all, together arvato and Sefton Council are managing to do more for you with less.

- In 2011 the Sefton Council & arvato partnership contributed significantly to the Council's budget savings whilst improving services
- In 2012 we will make an additional contribution of circa £0.9m through savings and improved revenue collections
- Waiting times in our One Stop Shops have been reduced
- We continue to review processes in order to keep reducing benefit claim processing times
- We've decreased the number of contacts claimants have to make by almost half.
- Self-service kiosks have been introduced into our One Stop Shops, making it easier for customers to make payments.
- Our Benefit Fraud Investigation Team achieved the best results in Merseyside for 2009/10 and 2010/11.
- The Managed Print Service we developed will save the Council more than £1m over the 10 years of our partnership.

Southport, PR8 1QB
Tel: 01704 544255
8.00pm - FREE FOR DINERS

'AJ' Brown, a young Yorkshire born, extremely talented singer/songwriter/jazz saxophonist, is at the beginning of a professional career which shows considerable promise with successful appearances already at Wigan Jazz Festival and Southport's Jazz on a Winter's Weekend. AJ has released his debut CD 'On Song' and this concert will feature some of its very well chosen tunes. His own distinctive singing style draws on a lifetime of listening to the masters of the idiom, from Sinatra, Bennett and Tormé, to the succeeding generation including Stevie Wonder, Michael Bublé and Diana Krall.

FRIDAY 11 MAY

Mike Smith's
Ginger Tunes Quartet
Jazz Festival Village
Town Hall Gardens
Lord Street, Southport, PR8 1DA
12 noon - FREE CONCERT

Since completing his debut album 'Ginger Tunes' in 2010, Mike has been playing jazz festivals up and down the country with his own aptly named "Ginger Tunes" Quartet. Consisting of Mike Smith on saxophone, Jake Woodward on drums, Tom Stichbury on guitar and JJ Rio on bass they conjure up a mesmerizing performance and sound interlacing that jazz with the coolness of 70's Bob James - images of a music era where instrumental dexterity and melodic finesse graced the airwaves alongside singer/songwriters.

Swingology

FRIDAY 11 MAY

Eve

Pizzeria Mamma Mia
120 Lord Street, Southport, PR8 1AA
Tel: 01704 540259
8.00pm - FREE FOR DINERS

This popular duo makes a welcome return to the festival. Combining the vocal talents of Emily Barden and Victoria Bragg, accompanied by guitar and keyboards, EVE bring you a stunning blend of old favourites and popular contemporary tunes.

Chameleon

On The Fringe at The Shakespeare
1 Scarisbrick New Road, Southport
Tel: 01704 533448
9.00pm - FREE CONCERT

Celebrating 30 years on the road this year, Chameleon specialises in a brand of feel-good groove-orientated jazz-funk for which it has established a loyal following and a solid reputation in the UK and abroad. Mixing inventive arrangements of the work of the masters with original material from current and past members, the quintet combines disciplined musicianship with a sense of fun. Featured tonight is the great guitarist Gary Boyle, a true legend of British jazz fusion with an incredible CV.

Mamadou and the Super Libidor

The Coronation, King Street
Southport, PR8 1JZ
Tel: 01704 530611
9.00pm - FREE CONCERT

Mamadou & the Super Libidor make a welcome return to the festival. Mamadou Diaw is from Senegal, West Africa. He is a master drummer and singer and composes all the music for his band which is based in Liverpool and features local musicians including saxophonist Martin Robinson, keyboard player/singer Karen Wynne and violinist Tom Sykes. The style of music is a mixture of jazz, funk, and Senegalese mbalax - very rhythmic, and if you've seen the band at Southport before, you'll know how difficult it will be to keep your feet still!

SATURDAY 12 MAY

Petrus

Jazz Festival Village
Town Hall Gardens
Lord Street Southport PR8 1DA
11.30am - FREE CONCERT

Petrus features the violin and accordion, two instruments not often associated with jazz! When versatile keyboard player Danny Mannix inherited an accordion, he had it renovated but then needed an opportunity to play it, and so Petrus was formed. The violinist is Tom Sykes, who is well known to Southport audiences, and the other members of the band are guitarist Les Bolger and John McCormick on double bass, both well known on the North West jazz scene. Their repertoire ranges from Eastern European and gypsy folk music to jazzy versions of TV themes that you may recognise. They also play well-known jazz standards, but you won't have heard them sound quite like this!

SATURDAY 12 MAY

Twin Frets

Marine Lake Café, Kings Gardens
Promenade, Southport PR8 1QX
11.30am - FREE CONCERT

An eclectic guitar duo consisting of Willy Fluss and Vernon Fuller, Twin Frets music takes audiences through an exciting journey from jazz standards to soul classics with occasional touches of reggae and township music, a dash of scatting and beat boxing, and a lot of great guitar playing.

Formed in the late nineties they have been regularly featured in many jazz and blues festivals and have also supported the likes of Geno Washington, the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra and the Northern Chamber Orchestra. Over the years, the band has developed a truly unique musical language that blends perfectly the styles and influences of these two very individual musicians.

Baked A La Ska

Jazz Festival Village
Town Hall Gardens
Lord Street, Southport, PR8 1DA
1.30 pm - FREE CONCERT

Baked A La Ska - back by popular demand, this is the heavy sound of Manchester ska. An 11 piece band of assembled oddballs and pranksters, fronted by an unholy trio of singers and featuring one of the tightest rhythm sections showcasing chops to make you drop!!

Trio Gitan

Marine Lake Café, Kings Gardens
Promenade, Southport PR8 1QX
1.30pm - FREE CONCERT

An evening with Trio Gitan will take you through the evocative sounds of Parisien café music, hot blooded tango's, wild European gypsy music, Mediterranean dance tunes, swing classics and their own powerful and driving compositions. All blended together to create a vivacious, dynamic and awe inspiring night of entertainment of the highest calibre. This music evokes electrifying guitar solos, fiery gypsy violins, and songs with plenty with vocal harmonies. This band are truly unique, entertaining and work really hard to give you an evening of wonderful music and song.

Twin Frets

Wayfarers Arcade, Lord Street
Southport, PR8 1NT
3.00pm - FREE CONCERT

An eclectic guitar duo consisting of Willy Fluss and Vernon Fuller, Twin Frets music takes audiences through an exciting journey from jazz standards to soul classics with occasional touches of reggae and township music, a dash of scatting and beat boxing, and a lot of great guitar playing.

Nova Scotia Jazz Band

Jazz Festival Village
Town Hall Gardens
Lord Street, Southport PR8 1DA
3.30pm - FREE CONCERT

The Nova Scotia Jazz Band is firmly in the tradition of the groups led by Eddie Condon, Muggsy Spanier, Bix Beiderbecke and Alex Welsh. Featuring the world class cornet of Mike Daly, the banjo wizardry of Duncan Findlay, the elegantly swinging string bass of Ken MacDonald and the clarinet and saxophones of John Burgess this sweet and hot quartet are a fresh take on the classic jazz style. In 2011 the band have appeared at the Glastonbury and Swaledale Festivals, the Ayr, Tarragona, Shetland, Glasgow, Swanage and Edinburgh Jazz Festivals and have played concerts all over the UK with their special guests Roy Williams, Brian Kellock and Forrie Cairns.

SATURDAY 12 MAY

Gogo Penguins

On The Fringe at The Shakespeare
1 Scarisbrick New Road, Southport

Tel: 01704 533448

5.00pm - FREE CONCERT

Classically trained Manchester based musicians Chris Illingworth (piano), Grant Russell (double bass) and Rob Turner (drums) met whilst studying at the RNCM and formed Gogo Penguins in 2009. During their individual music careers, the guys from Gogo Penguins have performed and collaborated with the likes of Jon Thorne (Lamb), Luke Flowers (Cinematic Orchestra), Chris Potter, Andy Shepherd and Mike Walker and as a trio have performed alongside acts including, Led Bib, Polar Bear, Django Bates and Acoustic Ladyland.

To see Gogo Penguins live is an emotionally charged experience and their music is a mix of original compositions and revisionist takes on contemporary anthems such as Queens of the Stone Age, Massive Attack and the Beatles.

Rainbow Vox

On The Fringe at The Shakespeare
1 Scarisbrick New Road
Southport PR8 6PU

Tel: 01704 533448

8.30pm - FREE CONCERT

Babette and Andrew are the in-house duo at On The Fringe under the name Rainbow Vox. They are a piano and vocal outfit, with their talents complementing each other. Both experienced performers in a wide variety of styles, they will be singing some of your favourite jazz standards while you relax and have a drink at On The Fringe at the Shakespeare.

Forty4

On The Fringe at The Shakespeare
1 Scarisbrick New Road
Southport PR8 6PU

Tel: 01704 533448

9.00 pm - FREE CONCERT

Forty4 play their own unique brand of blues R'n'B, roots, funk in a 5 piece line up consisting of twin lead guitar, vocals, Hammond organ, bass and drums. They appeared at Birmingham Jazz and Blues 2011 and played to an ecstatic crowd and were noted as 'a breath of fresh air' on the scene. The band performed at a number of National Blues Festivals last year and their lead guitarist performs with the North West's very own saxophonist Albie Donnelly's Supercharge on UK dates.

Sefton Jazz Orchestra

Jazz Festival Village
Town Hall Gardens, Lord Street
Southport, PR8 1DA

1.30pm - FREE CONCERT

Sefton Jazz Orchestra is the Music Services flagship jazz group and features young talented musicians all from Sefton schools. Members progress from the highly successful Jazz Ensemble to the Jazz Orchestra, which now boasts some competent young improvisers and excellent ensemble playing.

Since it's conception in 1986 the Jazz Orchestra has gone from strength to strength taking part in many high profile concerts, festivals and competitions. Under the direction of two highly regarded jazz exponents, Ged Harrison and Phil Shotton, the Jazz Orchestra will be performing a variety of big band music and feature some of the talented young musicians as soloists taking the audience on a musical journey with a few surprises on the way!

Sefton Music Service pride themselves on giving young musicians the opportunity to flourish within an ensemble and the future of jazz music is looking bright when you see these young musicians perform with such enthusiasm and obvious enjoyment!

2.30pm - FREE CONCERT

Back by popular demand, father and son Roy and Paul Gregory, have built a large and loyal following throughout the UK and Europe. Their performances go from strength to strength, as do their reviews: Taking influences not only from Django Reinhardt, but also from modern day gypsy jazz guitarists, traditional Spanish music, rock, country, classical and a host of other sources, Modjango have created a style encompassing the greatest aspects of each, and applied it to "Jazz Manouche" swing guitar.

The effect of this combination is simply astounding; as a result, Modjango have recently been rated among the top-ten acts of their kind in the World.
